Master's Message

Greetings Brethren,

First off, thank you again to all the brethren that attended Charity Lodge's District Deputy Visitation. We had 10 brethren attend, FANTASTIC!!!

We did an EA degree last month and I think I can say for everyone that it was not our best job, me included, but let's put that behind us and remember that we do degree work for the Candidate. He has to get a good feeling out of it, if not there is no motivation to move forward with either degree work or with Masonry as a whole.

Remember, May's meeting is RWDDGM Gil Fontes Visitation to Franklin Lodge, so PLEASE mark your calendar. We need a full house to support Gil and his GMC Jason Nystrom, and as is customary with Franklin Lodge we will be doing our annual clam fritters with all the fixings. As always this meal is "On the House" so please come by. We will be raffling off some nice Masonic items to raise money to pay for the event. I also should have our Masonic Label beer from Grey Sail Brewing. Fraternally,

Brett Marggraff
Master, Franklin Lodge #20
