Masters Message

Wardens and Brethren,

As we head into another month of social distancing, I hope all are healthy and safe. I honestly don't really care for the term “social distancing”, during this time we really shouldn't be socially distant, just physically distant. Freemasonry doesn't work without being social. Holding meetings virtually, calling, texting, emailing, and using one of the many forms of social media is a great way for us to still talk with the brethren. Those are just some of the forms that we can physically distance ourselves but still not be socially distant.

Last month, we held our first zoom meeting, and first I want to thank all the brethren who attended. It was great to see the brethren again. It was my goal to run the meeting as close as a normal in lodge meeting goes and I think it went pretty well. This month we will be holding our stated communication virtually again via zoom. The zoom meeting information will be emailed out and attached to the monthly notice. I hope to see more brethren join us this month, and as a reminder we will be opening on our normal day and time, Tuesday May 12, 7pm.

This month's program will be presented by RW Brother Michael Jarzabek, a member of several lodges including Ezekiel Bates Lodge in Massachusetts. His program is titled “The Mason with a Thousand Faces”. This talk is inspired by Joseph Campbell's 1949 book, “The Hero with a Thousand Faces.” As such it is an exploration of: the various stages of the Hero's Journey, its mythological roots, Masonic exemplifications, and the practical application of this useful art by the contemplative man.

I hope to see everybody in lodge for what is going to be a great program and a great night of brotherhood.

May the Blessings of Heaven rest upon us,

Ralph Brunson
Master
