Program: History of Franklin Lodge
By RW Raymond Geer, GL Historian

MASTERS MESSAGE

Brethren,

The Southern District fundraiser was a resounding success, earning thousands of dollars that will be forwarded thru the Masonic Services Association for the relief of Masons in war-torn Ukraine. Approximately 65 masons, their family and friends enjoyed dinner at Haversham and then participated in a raffle and auction of gift baskets. Senior Warden Robert Caron and RW Ray Geer made generous cash donations despite being unable to attend the event. Our most recent past-Master Brett Marggraff generously donated four gift baskets and our Marshall Richard Smith generously donated another large gift basket for the raffle and auction. Other Franklin lodge members participated in the event where they purchased raffle tickets or made a successful bid for auction merchandise. The event MC Mike Southern introduced Charity Jr Warden Henry Thayer who did the lion's share of work organizing the event, together with assistance from the other District Jr Wardens.

We are conducting the entire May meeting in the Fellow Craft degree (Opening, FC proficiency, District Deputy official visitation, Business meeting and Closing). Past Masters of Franklin Lodge are hereby requested to participate in this meeting to support our District Deputy and his Master of Ceremonies. RW Ray Geer will be presenting a slide show on the history of Franklin Lodge. Contact me for further information regarding how to attend the following events with your lodge:

May 10 - Franklin Lodge monthly meeting and District Deputy visitation. Program on "The History of Franklin Lodge" by RW Ray Geer.
May 17, 24, 31 - Practice MM degree in conjunction with Hope Lodge; all degree participants please attend esp. FC and Ruffians
June 14 - Franklin Lodge monthly meeting with presentation of 50-Year medals to three members. Collation will be a Strawberry Festival hosted by your officers
June 28-29 - Special meeting to confer Master Mason degree on three candidates; held in conjunction with Hope Lodge of Wakefield.

Please pray for our brother Worshipful Joseph Giancaspro who has deployed overseas.

Fraternally,
W.: Edward Lowe, Master
