MASTERS MESSAGE

Wardens & Brethren,

Our lodge has been busy this past month and we will be accelerating our activities as we approach the last three months in this Masonic year. We conferred the Entered Apprentice degree on candidate Robert Boucher in late October; saving the Trestleboard lectures for the program at Franklin's November monthly meeting on 11/8. The Edward Leon Duhamel Scholarship Selection Committee awarded three scholarships of roughly $1000 each, to Richard Nelson (W. Brian Thorp's grandson), Elizabeth Letizio (W. Thos. Stafford's granddaughter) and her sister Merissa Letizio. All three students will be invited to participate in a future Zoom meeting so that lodge members can discuss the scholarship directly with the beneficiaries. The Master and Sr. Warden started work with a lawyer to define best lodge practices for all considerations associated with alcohol offered at Franklin events. We are collecting foodstuffs to send to W. Joseph Giancaspro for the holidays while he is deployed overseas. W. Joe has expressed a desire for individually wrapped portions of jerky, nuts, savorys and sweets. Would you please consider donating whatever quantity of these types of foods that you can; we will be collecting after the November monthly meeting at the coffee bar collation. All donations must be mailed by Nov.10 to guarantee Christmas delivery. Larger portion jars, cans, etc. will be shared with his team of soldiers. Call me to arrange donation drop-off if you can't attend meeting. Please also continue to pray for our brother W. Joe. Call me if you'd like to carpool to Mt. Vernon's meeting 11/3 7pm start or to Hope's meeting 11/9 5pm start w/ turkey dinner @6pm.

Be well,

W.: Edward Lowe, Master
