MASTERS MESSAGE

Greetings Warden's and Brethren,

It was great finally getting back to actual in person meetings. June's meeting will include a dinner, which is now legal again. And YES!!!, collation after the meeting to include some dessert items along with your choice of Beer, wine or after dinner spirits. I will also bring a few cigars, to be enjoyed outside.

June will give us the opportunity to initiate 2 candidates to the degree of Entered Apprentice. I am also talking with two other men who have told me they are interested in becoming Masons. July and August we go to recess as normal, so I expect all Franklin Brethren, including myself, to be ready to do a Fellow Craft degree by October, with our EA's being able to do EA proficiency in September. Our District Deputy Grand Master, Right Worshipful Mazen Alsabe will be joining us for our June meeting. I would like to do a "Casual" Dinner Table come fall. Having it an "Open Table" so non-Masons, including our wives can come. I'm thinking a Sunday brunch starting off with a raw bar and Champagne on the front porch followed by 4 courses served table-side then dessert and cordials back on the main level and front porch. I will bring this up at June's meeting.
